About the Role

Launchpad Youth Community Inc is seeking professionals, local community members to join the highly experienced Board of Management at Launchpad Youth Community, we are particularly interested on the following skills:

1. Governance
2. Finance and accounting
3. Information technology
4. Cybersecurity
5. Experience and/or completion of Board of Director course or willingness to complete
6. Understanding of issues impacting youth and diverse communities
7. Understanding of First Nations culture and experiences– as almost half of our young people identify as First Nations.

We are passionate about empowering young people and are looking for skilled and committed professionals to help take Launchpad Youth Community to the next level.

About the organisation

Launchpad Youth Community Inc. strives to prevent youth homelessness and empowers young people to successfully achieve independence. We support young people who face homelessness in the City of Sydney and Inner West Sydney areas by providing them with housing, support and advisory services. Launchpad helps and empowers hundreds of vulnerable young people – some with children - every year.

Launchpad provides services to young people from a range of cultures, language groups, and LGBTIQ+. The Board strives to reflect the diverse community it serves and welcomes diversity and experience of homelessness among candidates who apply.
